

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS21899

This legislation is called the "Idaho Agritourism Promotion Act". This legislation defines agritourism and related terminology. It provides for limiting liability when agricultural operations are involved in agritourism activities, when warnings are posted per Idaho Code 6-3005. Liability is not limited, should the agritourism professional not follow certain procedures. This legislation also provides that when a farm is used to conduct agritourism activities, it shall not affect the assessment of the property as land actively devoted to agriculture, as provided in Idaho Code 63-604.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the general fund.

Contact:

Representative Darrell Bolz
(208) 332-1000
Jim Lowe
(208) 888-0988